Michael:

Yes, quite a few numbers which represent materials published post-war and/or topics covering the post-war period, although without searching each number I can't determine how many are significant collection-wise. In addition to PJ5054 and PJ5055, I would add:

BM155.2 History of Judaism 1951-
 BM198.2 Hasidism 1995-
 BM487-BM488 Dead Sea Scroll pubs/research
 BM561 General principles of Judaism 1951-
 BM601 Doctrines 1951-
 BM740.2 Sermons 1951-
 BS1140.2 Gen. works on Tanakh 1951-
 BS1151.2 English commentaries on Tanakh 1951-
 BS1151.5 English sermons, etc. on Tanakh 1951
 BS1225.2-BS1225.5 Humash commentaries 1951- (N.B.: There are similar numbers for commentaries on individual and groups of books of Tanakh published post-1950, but you probably don't need such an exhaustive list.)
 DS107.4, DS107.5 Israel description 1948-
 DS109.15 Jerusalem 1981-
 DS109.94 Israel history 1967-
 DS119.75 Intifada
 DS119.76 Arab-Israeli conflict 1993-
 DS126.4 Israel History 1945-48
 DS126.5 Israel History 1948-
 DS126.8-DS126.82 Yom ha-atmaut, Yom ha-zikaron
 DS126.9-.99 Independence War
 DS126.995 Israel History 1967-93
 DS127-DS127.9 1967 War
 DS128.1-DS128.19 1973 War
 DS128.2 Israel History 1993-

I hope this list helps. Please keep me posted on the process.

Lenore ... The folks from the Holocaust Assets Commission are about to do a sampling of Hebraic to determine how many books from Jewish Cultural Reconstruction and other Holocaust related sources were acquired by LC after WW2. They have asked me to indicate for them which shelves would NOT need to be sampled because they should not include any pre-WW2 materials (e.g., PJ5054, PJ5055 and shelves of serials that post-date 1945). Besides for these, are there any other classifications that I can mark off? Please advise and thanks in advance ... Michael David ...

Just a quick report on the three purchase orders that we promised to check because their dates fell within the JCR window.
